I met Jordan through my best friend, his sister Ashley. The times I was over at the house, he was there. He was a very funny kid, he really knew how to make you laugh. My younger brother also knew him, and played sports with him at the Fitness center. My brother came home, and told me how nice he was. Also, how good he was at the sport. When I got the news this morning, I was in total shock. All day I've been in tears. He has such a wonderful family, and good friends. I feel he'll have a legacy, and live in our hearts, and the stories we tell. He was a very nice kid, and he brought so much laughter to all of us! I feel lucky to of known him, even if it was a short time. Rip Jordan, you will be in our thoughts forever!
