Dana, I am Janice's cousin Don Foster. I was saddened to hear the awful news. I can still see Janice and Tip playing in the backyard behind us in my mind. I am so glad I got to see her the last time she was down a couple of years ago. We should all try to stay in touch with loved ones and relatives while we can because we never know what tomorrow brings. I pray that God brings you peace from your grief.

Janice was my sister, and like some siblings we did not always agree, but I loved her. I have always felt that to grow up without siblings was lonely, and still believe it. When we share our childhood with each other we see, and value the real person, even though time and years separate us, we are deeply attached in our hearts. I loved her, and I love my brother, Mickey, there is no stronger tie than having shared the same parents, and memories, good, or bad. As it truly soaks in that she is gone, I hurt more. Dana, I know you are in a great deal of pain, you were so close to her. I will continue to pray for you, and all the family and friends that will miss her. When you are able too, please call me. I love you. Aunt Connie

I am Janice's first cousin, Vera Foster Bachtel. It has been years since I saw or talked with Janice and I regret that. I remember her fondly; when we were kids, she and I used to play paper dolls and she taught me how to say some words in German. I am so sorry she is gone. May God Bless her dear family, and Mickey and Connie her siblings. I only wish I had kept in touch. With love, Vera -
