I just learned of Mrs Cooper's passing. She was my all time favorite teacher. She was my 5th grade teacher in "72". She always had extra time for those of us that maybe didn't have an easy home life. She gave me some of the best advice that I still remember. She definitely knew the art of teaching and left an impression on so many of us.

Mom,As I look back on our life together, I see only the good. Even though our closeness brought ruffled feathers and hurt feelings, we always forgave and understood each other. I will be forever grateful for the love and discipline you gave me. My respect for you is immeasurable and my love unconditional. Take care of Dad and keep a place open for me in that motor home in the sky!!! Miss you both so very much..Jenny

Mrs. Cooper was my sixth grade teacher at Central Elementary in the sixties. One day, she let the class cook breakfast - - she showed us how to make scrambled eggs in an electric skillet. I will never forget that - - it left such an impression on me. I remember going home and wanting to make scrambled eggs for my family. It was probably my first experience at cooking something independently. I still love to cook and have moved on from scrambled eggs, but I've got to believe that that experience planted a seed with me.

Oh Bonnie Cooper!!!What a joy you were. When I first starting teaching 25 years ago (in what almost everyone thought would be my first and last year)you and the rest of the Central staff became my biggest cheerleaders. You were a marvel, in and out of the classroom. You were most certainly welcomed into Heaven to the sound of applause....job well done good and faithful servant. Job well done.

Mrs. Cooper was my 5th grade teacher along with Mrs. Mason at Central Intermediate. She was a great teacher and mentor. She really left a legacy in my life. She even said hello to me when she would see me in public for a long time after I left Central and even after I graduated. She helped me understand math. And taught me how to respect handwriting and spelling. Thank you to her family for letting her change or lives also.
