To the Miller Family; I have known your good family for many, many years and consider it a privilege to be apart of your family through my brother-in-law Ross. There are many memories of Eve I hold close, especially when we were young boys bailing hay. She made it a priority to provide food and water for us on those hot summer days. Her visit to Colorado with my family was a real blessing and I'll never forget our trip up to our cabin. You had to be there. So much fun. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you go through this difficult time. Sincerely, Dan & Jan Crego
