It is not easy to say goodbye to someone who has been there for you for 62 years of your life. Calvin was more than a brother to me growing up. Our poor mother used to say what he didn't get into, I did. That was true. Over the last few weeks I spent a lot of time with him. Until the end, he didn't ask for anything from anyone. His wife did a wonderful job of caring for him and for that I am ever grateful. When Calvin started telling me that he loved me, I knew his thoughts. He was ready to go home with God and was at peace. I will hang onto my special memories of him that only a few of us know and love him forever. RIP in Peace Bro.

Del and Junior, so sorry I cannot make the calling hours and the funeral. I really enjoyed working with all of you. Calvin was ornery and blunt but that was the kind of honesty I needed as a young fella. You and your family will be and have been on my thoughts and prayers.

Vicki and family..our thoughts and prayers are with you through this sad time. Know that God needed another guardian angel and called Calvin home to fill that need. Though we didn't know Calvin personally, he had to be a wonderful person because you chose him to be a part of your life. Hang onto all the wonderful memories and find comfort knowing he isn't suffering anymore. I may not be there in person but you know I am always there in spirit. Love and miss you.
