Dan & Cathy, I just heard the news last night and I am sorry for your loss. Your Mom was always very nice to me and I remember she used to love to laugh and had a great sense of humor. She passed along a lot of herself to you both and she will live on through you and your children. Know that your friends will be there when you need them and we are thinking of you.

Our condolences on the loss of your Mom, Grandmother, sister, Aunt and a very loved person in your life. Dory and I went to the convent of the Children of May one time, and although getting in the chapel was difficult for her, she was bound and determined to do it. And she did. Seems like this is a common, strong trait in the family. God bless you and give you comfort! Farris and Elissa Wilhite

Deepest sympathy to Dory's family. I was very saddened by her passing, had thought of her on our shared birthday, but had lost contact in recent years. She was a genuine friend, great RN, true Christian & just an all-around sweet LADY. Many have good memories of "Dory". Richard & Mary Celestine Tabler

In 1961, upon graduating from "Good Sam" X-Ray Technology School, I was folded into the Rogers family by nurse Dorie at the Mattingly farm. I had not much money and was awaiting my registry exam (R.T.). She gave me support and love at a time in my emerging adult life that was lonely and uncertain. She was a spiritual mentor. Returning home after a swing shift, Jess and I often shared a midnight snack, left for us by Dorie before she retired for the night, and many stories and laughs. The children were fun and I loved being there. I will never forget the untimely accidental death of Lenny. I moved to California but remained in touch for years. Dorie's sense of humor always lifted one above the sorrows of everyday life. She had an angelic spirit. How can I ever express my gratitude for such loving gifts?
