Ann I am so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I was just pointing out to someone the other day the houses on Locust Ave. and telling them who all lived there. I was telling them about your family and how our families did alot together-even going to Northside beach and have picnics. So Ann hang onto your memories-you own them and they will help you smile through these hard times. Our dad's are now together again discussing the families and the kids.

I will always remember Dick as the genuinely kind and warm-hearted neighbor of my grandpa, Dave McCarty. He was always extraordinarily kind to my brother Matt and I as we were growing up and did a lot for my family. I waited on him and Mary Ann at Bills BBQ many times over the last few years and he never failed to put a smile on my face. I could always joke and laugh with him. His smile was infectious. He will be missed, but I know he's up in Heaven, continuing to put a smile on the face of everyone he meets. God bless him and his family.
