John & Amanda, What a wonderful grandpa to of been blessed with! Always keep his memories tucked in your hearts and a part of him will live for-ever! You'll walk in the room and a silly little smile will come across your face because one of them special little memories will make it seem as if he is right there. That is the glory of having such a close loving family. I love the two of you and my prayers are with the entire family during your time of grief. God bless!
