Ma you may not of been my real mom but you sure acted like it. I know you loved me very much and would do anything for me. I've watched your health fell you and it was very heart breaking to see you hurting. You fought a hard battle till the end now your an Angel watching over us. I know the good memories we made thru the years will always be with me and they will always bring a smile to my heart. Till we meet again. Love you.
