Becky, So sorry to hear about your Mom. A year ago at the Coshocton County Fair, my Dad and your Mother spent nearly an hour reminiscing over old times. Dad told of your Mom helping him take water to the workers in the field in the early 30s. She was not very old and didn't remember because she was so young, but it was a terrific story. Lots of great memories of 4-H and the Fair. My only advice is to focus on the good memories.

I just do not know where to start, my heart was very deeply sadden to hear of Edith's passing. At school she respectfully reminded me "Mrs Fairall" Over the years I would often think of her and when my two daughters attended a year at Union we could be reunited. I am truly blessed to have grown up with her in my life. I can remember because she was the neighbor, a good friend to my Mom and Dad and the church pianist I could just do whatever I wanted in her class room but she sternly but lovingly remind me that it would not be TOLERATED! Lesson learned! She will be missed and will always hold a special place in my heart. Looking forward to the day we will be reunited in Heaven. Much love goes to your family Kathy, Becky and JerryMelissa (Anderson) Acheson
