My deepest sympathy is with Fred's family. Fred was a great friend and neighbor during my years in Newark and even tho I have not seen him in ages I have tried to keep track. I still have the picture of "Newark Investors" our investment club. What a group that was! In short, Fred was a marvelous person!

Amy Callander Matesich, You are so right about Mr. Wollins and Mr. Callender playing cards and having a cocktail (But only after 12 noon never before.) I use to wait on both of them at MCC. They were almost inseparable. My condolences to Mrs. Wollins and the family of Mr. Wollins. He was a great guy.
