Bonnie's family,I graduated with Bonnie and I have fond memories of our time in Home Ec. I will always remember her quiet little chuckles at the things we did to entertain her. What I didn't know is we shared the very same birthday. She is now at peace and with her first love. My sympathy for your loss. She was a great person.Patty (Cordray) Stevens

Kelly, Bob, Paula, & Brandon...I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I pray that God will comfort you as you learn to dwell on the fact that she's just a "breath away" on the other side and you'll be reunited in God's perfect timing. No matter what, we're never really ready to give up our loved ones. We can only think about the fact that her suffering is finally over. Kelly, I'm so sorry you didn't have long together, but I'm so grateful that she had you in the end. Bonnie was a very special family member and I look forward to seeing her again when God brings us back together! Peace and blessings... Bud and Debbie Angles and my Mother: Eloise Whyde Fluharty
