To all of the family of Burnedda, You are all in my prayers. I have many good memories or her from my life in the "burg". and later I would bring my mother to see her and sometimes take them both out to lunch. Her quilts were so beautiful and I hope you all have some of them and can feel the love she sewed in everyone of them. God Bless you all. Beth "Freshwater" Flynn

Rudy & Rick: Was sorry to hear of your aunts death. I remember as a small boy coming to your house there in Frazeyzburg and playing ball or just having fun. She was always kind to me and I know she really loved both of you. You have my deepest sympathy and may GOD comfort you in this great loss. Ralph F. Howard, Jr.
