To the Family: Jim will be missed by all, always with a big smile and a story to tell, always took time to talk. Life is not about what you have, but the family and friends you have and keep and Jim had both. Rest well Jim.

Dear Carolyn, Donna, Sherry and Family, The memories of being at your farm and spending special times with you girls, your Dad and Mom are too many to mention, but they will always be cherished by me and many others! Your Dad was a very special guy that always had a smile and was willing to share a great story or a good laugh. He has touched the lives of many and is sadly missed by all! Please know that your friends are here to support you during this difficult time. Our heartfelt prayers are with you all. Love, Carolyn and Bill
