To the Frankenhoff family. I am sadden over the passing of Nola. Nola was my father, Skip Melton's sister. I remember one time when Nola was in the old Hart's Big Bear store where I worked at the time and she asked me for assistance. I took one look at her and said, "You must be Nola" as you look like my father." Nola was taken back and then laughed. She never had anyone identify her by saying she looked like her brother Skip. I know that Nola, Jimmy and my dad are all in heaven with Grandpa Melton having long conversations and many laughs. May the compassion of caring family and friends lessen your sorrow and lift your heart. Melanie Melton Cowdery - Nola's neice
