To Margie's family. I was sad to hear of Margie's passing. I have known her since I was a very small child and she worked at Grant's with my grandmother Eva Couch. I also just lived across the road from her on Leonard. I never saw her without a smile and she was a beautiful person. My sympathy to all of the family.

Deena: I was so saddened to hear of Margie's passing. What a tough, tough woman she was...she will be missed by many as she touched so many people's lives. You were such a good daughter to her...you took great care of her. Not every parent can say the same. We have to be thankful for days we did share with our loved ones..the memories will carry us through! Thinking of you and your Dad at this sad time...and reflecting on some of the fond memories that I have of her. Take care.
