Dear Family members (my nieces and nephews all) - I met your mother shortly after she became a nurse and enjoyed seeing her as often as we could get to Newark. (We moved around a bit due to your Uncle Bill's schools.) I remember her as always smiling and always so soft spoken with everyone, even when she had all those rambunctious young-uns at her feet. She will be missed, but I treasure memories of her and your Dad. I love you all - wish we could see more of each other. Aunt Janie. (oceans4jwg@yahoo.com - please send me your addresses. Thanks.)

My thoughts and prayers are with the family, Sis. Green was a wonderful example of a christian wife, mother, and saint of God. I have missed her not being in church since she has been gone but, I am glad she has gone to claim her reward for her faithfulness! What a sweet, sweet spirit she possessed and I know our Lord was generous to share her all these years. I know it is hard to give someone you love up but, what a blessing to know they have gone Home to be with our Savior!

Dear Green Family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. I just found out and was saddened for you. I was introduced to your dear mother and father through Carla when I first began attending church services at God's Acres. Carla was the first friend who ever wanted to pray with me. I'll never forget that. I realize her parents were good examples and taught her to be sensitive to the needs of others. Through that I came to be at their home on Postal Ave. often. They were like surrogate parents to me. Sis. Green was always so gracious and tender. Very Sweet is what I think of her. Your dad married Dan and I. He counseled me and they both treated me as a daughter. They still hold special memories for me. I didn't hear of Bro. Green's passing until too late as well. So sorry for your loss, but you have such wonderful memories of wonderful parents. You'll all be in my prayers for the Lord to comfort and strengthen you. Kimberly Metheny

Dearest Mom, I will miss you so much! I will miss seeing you at my lunch breaks and bringing you salads and baked potatoes from Wendy's. I will miss seeing you after work and spending the evening with you. Cameron will miss reading Clifford books with you. Carissa and Courtney will miss coming to visit you after school. Carrie will miss seeing your wonderful hugs and smiles. We had so much fun when you came to our house for supper and when you spent Christmas at our house in 2009. You loved the iced tea and you loved Jeff's cooking!! Jeff was so glad to have gotten to know you. Jeff spoke many kind words honoring you and our family in a Celebration service in Carrollton. You would have been proud of all your family. I remember all the sayings you taught us. Such as: "Pretty is as pretty does," "All that glitters is not gold is the story often told," "Be careful your face might stay like that," "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you". Mom you were a fantastic mother. I know you are with dad, your three baby girls, Andy, your grandson, and your great grandson, Samuel. I will see you and dad in Heaven some day! Your baby daughter, Carla.

Dear Green Family: We're saddened by the loss of your dear precious mother, Sister Lois. I remember their first days at our church and seeing you all grow from toddlers into responsible adults. Thinking back, their love for each other, you, and the things of God was ever evident. Today you all are the fruit of those wonderful lives, industrious and Kingdom centered. As a result you will always carry in your heart an array of wonderful memories. May you feel the comforting presence of the Holy Spirit as you walk through the coming days, knowing that you have the power of choice within you to reunite with your Dad and Mother through all eternity. What a day that will be!

Dear Mother, I want to thank you for the memories of your sweet smile and your constant love. I would have loved to kept you forever but knew this day would come.It is tyruly bittetsweet- to keep you would've been selfish, but by letting you go there is the realization that we can be reunited in a much better place. I will treasure those last butter-fly kisses and "I love you, too"'s along with the assurance that you are in Heaven. I treasure the memories of being taught by the best to treat others with kindness and respect. I know by now that you are reunited to the "love of your life", my father, and your three baby girls. WOW! I awoke this morning, turning to check your breathing and realized again that you no longer need us to fuss over you. I hope you know how much all of your children have enjoyed gathering together and singing to you and sharing the stories of our beloved Mother. Your loving daughter, Beth
