What a beloved Father and Grandfather this man was, not to mention friend and family member always. The beautiful daughters and grandchildren he gave this world are his legacy, and will always make him as proud as they did while he was with them here on earth.Two of his little grandsons resemble him in looks (cute as buttons), one little Grandson resembles his spirit for life (wild and free), and his two Granddaughter's carry the same beauty, and grace that his daughters do. Traci was his awesome, loving caregiver and Angela, his calming, loving supporter. On quiet summer nights as we look at the sky, we will listen for the quiet jingle of your "Harley Bells", and know that you are riding free among the stars. Safety on your journey Michael and please give "Papa" a hug for us all.
