I haven't seen Virgil in years but he was a gentle giant or better yet Ferdinand the Bull. In our younger days we played alot of sports together but the one event I'll never forget was the trip that he , Margaret, Lois Hall and I went down Blacks Road to the State Fair and hit that big hump in the road just above Outville at 70 mph. We went 70 feet in the air. That jump ruined Virgils car with a bent frame and made all the rides at the fair seem trivial. My deepest condolences to Margaret and her family.
