Thanks for helping my 1st Cousin James Marshall moving to his homestead in Dillon a few days before your passing. Several things have happened to him the last several days, a passing of his sister in law Lila Marshall, so he is still at Middleton in Granville. So he is to call me when he knows the arrangements.

My condolences to Peggy's family, so saddened to hear of her passing. She was such a nice soul & was a wonderful caretaker to our Mom, just the best! Peggy was a Godsend for our Mom, myself & my two sisters during a difficult time during Mom's failing health, we couldn't have hired a better person for Mom that became a friend to Mom & all of us. RIP Peggy.

Peggy family, sorry to hear of Peggy death. We enjoyed her at our church services and Bible studies over the years. In February she helped our church provide food, love and prayers for one of our church families. She never let us know much about her own sickness. She stepped forward all the time for others. She knew how to offer prayers, helping with sickness and a great support of doing things to all she knew and new friends. She will be missed by all of us. Perryton United Methodist Church
