Jimmy and Jill and kids. So sorry to hear of the loss of your mom and grandma. We went way back as long as I can remember as a kid the McCutcheons was our neighbors. Then a few years later our son kept talking about this great family he became acquainted with in Adamsville and the hunting club. And constantly talking about how wonderful they were and Sandy and her husband took him under her wing He always said Sandy was like a second mother to him. I know you will have lots of wonderful memories to keep close to your heart. Sending our prayers. ❤️❤️
