Sorry to hear about the passing of Patsy. I had a dream about her a few days ago and thought I would do some checking. We first met at the Frisch's Big Boy in the early 60's when she was there with her daughter Sandy. I put some money in the Jukebox to play "Sherry by the Four Seasons" after seeing Patsy and Sandy there. About a decade later I was at the Evan's Family house many times to play cards with Rod and Jeffery or just hang out. She was always welcoming. I am not sure if she even recalled our first meeting since I never brought it up.
