I had the distinct pleasure for many years to sit beside Ruth every Wednesday and Sunday in our church choir. Even though she was fifty years my senior, she was so sharp and witty. She always had me laughing. I loved that she would dress for every occasion and holiday and I so envied her nails, which were always perfectly done. She hasn't sung with us for a few years and I have definitely missed her. She was a true joy to be around. I hope to be just like her when I'm 100.

Ruthie, I am so grateful that I had the opportunity to know you through Dr Myers, and Dr Stewart's office. You were a bundle of joy for so many people! Be at peace and living such joy with our Lord. Please give Dr Myers and Dr Stewart hugs for us....we miss them. I am sure you already have done so!
