Brother Brandon loved life & always showed his love for those around him with the most loving, kind words of encouragement, and I don't believe I ever seen him even during his illness without a beautiful smile upon his face. I loved hearing him sing and I knew his life backed up the message in the songs he sang, he was a wonderful brother in he Lord. The last time I heard him sing with the quartet my soul rejoiced hearing him praise the Lord for His goodness unto him & for how God had kept His hand upon him throughout his illness. God was always at the forefront of Bro Brandon's life & the light of Christ shined brilliantly through him! Sis Jaylene, girls and Bro/Sis Irwin Sesher and the entire family, my heart goes out to each & everyone. I pray the comfort, grace, guidance, peace and strength of God will encompass you each day as you journey down this road life has now taken. My sincere prayers will continue to caress your family & I pray God will help ease your heartache. Thank the Lord, one day soon we shall all meet our precious brother again. We'll shout the streets of Glory, singing the songs of Zion along with him one more time, and to never be separated any more. May God wrap His tender loving arms of mercy around each one of you. Brother Brandon will always be remembered for his love of God, his family, and life itself. He will be greatly missed by all who knew & dearly loved him.

I remember working with him in the dining hall at church. We would use the wooden pot stirrer as an air guitar while we washed the dishes and tried to prank each other during the weeks of campmeeting. We would act like we were playing the popular song of that time using wooden stick for a guitar, pans for drums, and a wooden spoon for a microphone. We would laugh so hard we wouldn't be able to look at each other without losing it. He would always come up from behind me and wrap his arms around me and give me a big squeeze. It was a pleasure to hear him sing and use his talents for God. He always had a smile on his face, and would always be the first to lighten the mood with a joke or something funny going on in the world. Even in the last few months he would always joke about something and make you leave in a better mood than you came. It's a total shock to know that he is gone. However, I know he is no longer suffering and wouldn't trade places with us if he could. I can't wait to see him again and pray for the family during this difficult time. He taught me to have a better outlook on life as he never seemed to have a bad day. And if he was, you'd never know it.
