My heart is broken over the loss of Anna Wolford. I did not know she passed away. She was truly the sweetest lady ever. Thursdays have not been the same. I loved to sing with her and she taught me the song, "Old Grey Mare". We listened to recordings of Fiddle playing. We would Dance to Elvis and we would enjoys snacks together and McDonald's. She was a gem! She had a nick name for me, "The Big one". She made me laugh, she sure did love her game shows, we especially liked Family Feud and we enjoyed watching rodeo shows together as well. We had alot of fun trying to get her recliner to "let her out"! I will always miss you Anna Wolford, I needed you and you needed me. I'm sorry that I was not with you in your last few months. You helped me with the grief of my grandmother who passed in 2019 and you didn't even know it. You were my friend.

What a sweet wonderful woman! I had the privilege of working with her at Jefferson. She volunteered to do whatever needed to be done at the school . . . and she did it with a happy heart. She loved each and every one of those kiddos. We had a great bunch of people working at Jefferson . . . such fun times!
