Dear Carole, Brad, Brian, and Bonnie, I am heartbroken for all of you with the loss of Ron. He was such a big guy...both in physical size and personality when we were all growing up in the old neighborhood. Everyone loved him. It was wonderful to connect with Carole and Bonnie as an adult, and realize Ron was still as I remembered him from our childhood. Heaven might be "slightly" louder, with an extra dose of joy with Ron at the banquet table. What a great thought! My hope is that you all know the peace that is Ron's now. With affection, mary ann grady

We never knew Mr Campbell but if Brad, Katie and family are any indication of his ability as a father and grandfather he must have been a wonderful man.

As a waitress at First Community Village, it was always so refreshing to see him and Ms Carole come down to dinner. Often stressed, his silly laughter and humor lit up the room and made every workday of mine better. You will be missed Mr Campbell ❤️
